

Li-Chiang, 21st Nov.
1922.

Dear Mr. Forrest,

Many thanks for your kind letter. With this note I send you the two Mo-su books with translation.

~~Every~~ I hope, you will be able to make out, what the pictures in the book ^{mean} through the translation.
Every line, that springs in, is the beginning of the explanation of the figures, which are in the book divided by lines.

In the beginning of "the book to invite the spirit" I didn't make this distinction, but only put a little stretch.

Please, do not thank me any more for the work, for it has been quite a pleasure to me to do the same.

Concerning the expenses, that is all finished. That is not worthwhile to mention.

Concerning the camp table, I fear there will come up too much costs.

Concerning the canvass cloth, may I know the price. Please, be so kind to ~~write~~ tell me, when you are not too busy.

I imagine, how busy you will be these last days and I do not so perhaps it is better to decide not to take it.

want to increase your work.

Perhaps you will find a moment to look up the Mo. rev's books.

Perhaps there is something, which has to be explained. If so, gladly I will do.

May God keep you in good health

Yours sincerely

Else Schacht.
