

soon - The Harveys are at Harrogate. Miss Korner returns to Aldbourne in March.
Frank sends a letter.
You must answer it
in your next letter.
Mr. Mordaunt is the French gentleman ~~who~~ I alluded to;
if you were at home
you would find me
as much occupied
in French as English literature. Take care or I shall heat you.

I think you will find another letter post paid - he has no time ^{even for} Wednesday writing home, & I am sure him his is Mr. Kirby's - Burroughs House - Toll house about London. ^{at Biddisbury} Dear Geraldine

Having an opportunity of sending a parcel
I write a line with you for Samuel power which the time is coming on.
Your white cap I cannot find - & by the tells me she sent your mock garnet necklace which
Mr. father was very unwilling to send, thinking as I do. that such a style of ornament by being the most genteel becomes the real vulgar - I had forgot its existence till you reminded me of it.

I also send my greypan.
The A Dyer here, says
it will take pink or amber - if your dyer says "too", you may get it done for yourself.
I hope you come home it may be made up, but you cannot want it yet.

If it can be dyed any colour black well, you may have it - but you must consult the dyer.
Thank you for your last. Some lines in it were written so well that I entertain great hopes of your hands
forming. ~~many thanks~~
I have been to Dr. Duncan Lodge at last. Miss Ellis enquired kindly after you, I am anxious after your improvement - she means to write you
a note of remembrance

The death of Miss M. M. M. afflicted by Frank has excited a great sensation.
From the sublime Christian heroism she was enabled through God, to die.
She felt the symptoms on ^{the} Wednesday at tea - knew then that death must follow - but she determined once again to repair, ~~to~~ & take as it was her farewell of life in the sanctuary - She went that evening to Mr. Stowell's lecture, came home, but never mentioned her state to her sister till next morning when the doctor was sent for ~~who~~ who had ~~the~~ 10.00 am report before crossed & cautioned the post.

But the H. Rev. Mr. Gardner & Mr. Stowell remained with her through her agony of trial. Fearful as it was Religion triumphed & in the interests of the cause she ~~triumphed~~ ~~and~~ over ~~the~~ death & by the grave - picked up funeral texts - sent messages & bidding one of her friends & I could not disguise a look or tone on her account. The hymn "Lord let us join our Church sang" she was ~~singing~~ on the Wednesday night - she would have had at times by her dying bed but her ~~face~~ ~~was~~ ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~face~~ wonder at her ~~face~~ ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~face~~ the strong articulate it herself.
